

Conditions of service

You understand and agree that CAAS makes no claims, representations, warranties or guaranties about the quality or sufficiency of the services provided by CAAS or any of its volunteers. As consideration for the services provided by CAAS, you hereby release CAAS, its agents, any volunteer accountants and their employers from any and all claims, liabilities or damages directly or indirectly relating to or which could arise from the services provided to you by CAAS. Further, in return for the services provided by CAAS, you agree to indemnify and hold CAAS, its agents, volunteer accountants and their employers harmless from and against any and all claims, liabilities, or damages of any kind, including without limitation direct, special or consequential damages, arising out of or related to the services provided by CAAS, its agents, representatives or volunteer accountants.

You represent that the statements you have made to us are true to the best of your knowledge and belief.